

A Capital Idea!

A proper noun is the name of a particular person, place, or thing. It needs to be capitalized. Some of the proper nouns in the sentences below are not capitalized correctly. Rewrite the sentence so it is correct.

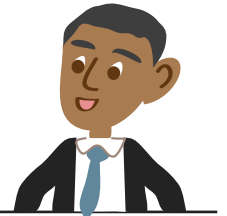

Neil traveled to egypt in august.

We went to the california college of the arts to see the exhibition.

Tomorrow, president obama will give a speech.

mr. potter taught us about world war I in the american history class.

I want to be able to speak french and spanish well.

