

Ask

- What kind of copyright license does the creative work have?
- Do I need to get permission from the creator to use it?

Attribute

- Have I provided attribution to the creator?

Ask

1. Do a reverse-image search to try to find the original creator of the image.
2. If the photo has a regular copyright, email or get ahold of the creator to ask permission.

Attribute

1. If you get permission, provide attribution by listing the author and date.
2. Also add a link back to the photo's source. You might also use a citation.
