Dapper Dan's dog, Dingo,
ran down to the dock.

He drank dirty water
and chased ducks by the flock.

Dirty Dan's dog, Dingo, got sick as can be,
Dan drove Dingo to the vet to see.

Doctor Debbie said, "Your dear dog has the flu.
There is definitely not much that you or I can do."

"Don't take your dear dog to the dock anymore.
Now put him to bed 'til he's not droopy or sore."

Now read this rhyme both fast and slow,
And find all the D words as you go.
