Yolanda got a yearbook at school today. It has funny pictures in it. Which pictures go together? Draw lines to match the pictures in Yolanda's yearbook. The words in each picture begin with y. Can you say them?

This word begins with y. It is one way to answer a question. When you say it, you nod your head up and down. What word is it? Now play this game. Take turns acting out these words without saying anything: No. I don't know. Who me? Stop! Come here. Be quiet. Too loud!
