Q q

Quiet the dog and quiet the cat.
Please quit playing with your hat.

The dog is quacking like a duck.
The cat has questions about his luck.

A quarter, a dime, a nickel, too,
Are quickly hidden in my shoe.

One last quote before we're done.
Quitting this quest isn't much fun.

Now read this rhyme both quick and slow,
And find all the Q words as you go.
