Short-a sound

Fat Cat's Rule

The consonant-vowel-consonant rule: When only one vowel comes between consonants, that vowel is usually short. To help you remember, mark the short-a sound like this: făt căt.

Unscramble the letters to spell each word. Mark the vowel short.

 1. atr _____	 2. aht _____	 3. ktac _____
 4. mkas _____	 5. naf _____	 6. plam _____
 7. pca _____	 8. dDa _____	 9. tarp _____
 10. dahn _____	 11. palc _____	 12. cklab _____

This is yucky and smelly! It may be your job to take it out. You put it in a big can or dumpster. Unscramble these letters to find out what it is.

tashr _____ Mark the vowel short.
